RESOLUTION

1 Resolved, That, effective from January 3, 1967, the 2 Committee on Foreign Affairs, acting as a whole or by sub-3 committee, is authorized to conduct a full and complete in-
4 vestigation and study of all matters—

5 (1) relating to the laws, regulations, directives, and 6 policies including personnel pertaining to the Department
7 of State and such other departments and agencies en-
8 gaged primarily in the implementation of United States
9 foreign policy and the oversea operations, personnel, and 10 facilities of departments and agencies of the United

1 States which participate in the development and execu-
2 tion of such policy;

3 (2) relating to the carrying out of programs and 4 operations authorized by the Mutual Security Act and to 5 other laws and measures to promote the foreign policy of 6 the United States;

7 (3) relating to activities and programs of interna-
8 tional organizations in which the United States par-
9 ticipates;

10 (4) relating to the effectiveness of the United States
11 programs of assistance and information; and

12 (5) relating to legislation within the jurisdiction of 13 the Committee on Foreign Affairs pursuant to provisions
14 of rule XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives:

15 Provided, That the committee shall not undertake any in-16 vestigation of any subject which is being investigated by any 17 other committee of the House.

18 The committee shall report to the House (or to the Clerk 19 of the House if the House is not in session), as soon as prac-
20 ticable during the present Congress, the results of its investi-
21 gation and study, together with such recommendations as it
22 deems advisable.

23 For the purpose of carrying out this resolution the com-
24 mittee or subcommittee is authorized to sit and act during the 25 present Congress at such times and places, within or without

1 the United States, whether the House has recessed, or has 2 adjourned, to hold such hearings, and to require, by subpoena
3 or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses
4 and the production of such books, records, correspondence,
5 memorandums, papers, and documents, as it deems necessary.
6 Subpenas may be issued under the signature of the chairman
7 of the committee or any member of the committee designated 8 by him, and may be served by any person designated by such 9 chairman or member.

10 Notwithstanding section 1754 of title 22, United States
11 Code, or any other provision of law, local currencies owned by 12 the United States shall be made available to the Committee
13 on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives and em-
14 ployees engaged in carrying out their official duties under 15 section 190d of title 2, United States Code: Provided, That 16 (1) no member or employee of said committee shall receive 17 or expend local currencies for subsistence in any country at 18 a rate in excess of the maximum per diem rate set forth in 19 section 502 (b) of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as 20 amended by Public Law 88-633, approved October 7, 1964;
21 (2) no member or employee of said committee shall receive
22 or expend an amount for transportation in excess of actual 23 transportation costs; (3) no appropriated funds shall be 24 expended for the purpose of defraying expenses of members

1 of said committee or its employees in any country where 2 counterpart funds are available for this purpose.

3 Each member or employee of said committee shall make 4 to the chairman of said committee an itemized report show-
5 ing the number of days visited in each country whose local 6 currencies were spent, the amount of per diem furnished,
7 and the cost of transportation if furnished by public carrier,
8 or if such transportation is furnished by an agency of the 9 United States Government, the cost of such transportation,
10 and the identification of the agency. All such individual
11 reports shall be filed by the chairman with the Committee
12 on House Administration and shall be open to public 13 inspection.

90TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 179

Authorizing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to conduct a full and complete investigation of matters relating to the laws, regulations, directives, and policies including personnel pertaining to the Department of State and such other departments and agencies engaged primarily in the implementation of United States foreign policy and the overseas operations, personnel, and facilities of departments and agencies of the United States which participate in the development and execution of such policy.
